SAMPLES OF VOWS

ENGLISH VOW NUMBER ONE

Happiness in marriage does not just happen; it must be actively cultivated. In marriage, it is the small gestures that hold immense significance. It is: never being too old to hold hands, remembering to say 'I love you' daily, and resolving conflicts before bedtime. It is about never taking your partner for granted, and keeping the romance alive throughout the years. It is about facing life's challenges together, selflessly doing things for each other out of love, not obligation. It is understanding that perfection is not attainable and embracing flexibility, patience, and humor. It is possessing the ability to forgive and forget, creating an environment where both individuals can continue to grow. It is a shared pursuit of goodness and beauty. Marriage is not just about finding the right partner; it is about being the right partner.

ENGLISH VOW NUMBER TWO

Do you want to renew your vows and pledge your love and life again to …?
Do you promise to love and cherish for better or worse, for richer or poorer, in sickness and in health, from this day forward?
……, Do you want to renew your vows and again pledge your love and life to ……
Do you promise to love and cherish for better or worse, for richer or poorer, in sickness and health, from this day forward? For all the years to come, love, happiness, and health shall guide you every day……:
you may kiss your bride.

ENGLISH TRANSLATION

The bride and groom should share every moment of life together, whether in times of happiness or sadness, ease or difficulty, frustration or depression. Marital connection is the foundation stone of two people's lives. Over that they build every second of their life, building up a planned family to guide their children on the proper path until they have matured and stepped on their own feet. Once two people of the opposite sex are united by marriage, they are responsible to each other for anything and everything, at any time and every time, anywhere and everywhere. Under no circumstance, should one disobey or disregard the other. Even in times of disagreement, a peaceful solution should be the only answer. As long as both are going according to your religion, tradition, and custom of your society and abiding by the laws of the society, no one should disobey and disregard the other. Loyalty, honesty, and care for each other are essential for a successful life together. No one should anyhow, anytime be dishonest or disloyal to another. Mutual understanding and trust between both will bind the marriage together forever. In the name of Almighty and most merciful God and in the witness of life and non-life creatures in and around this scene, staff of Veligandu Maldives Resort Island and all the people present here may I ask you:....., do you ...as your wedded wife? ...do you accept ...as your wedded husband? As a sign of your matrimony between each other, the groom may put the ring on the bride's finger and the bride may put the ring on the groom's finger. I now proclaim ....as Man and Wife Now, you may kiss the bride.
